

Sue Duffield, a hilarious heart-warming and honest storyteller and singer/songwriter, will strengthen your faith and encourage your soul. Sue's song, "Steppin' Out" has been getting great reviews and accolades - getting women to "step out" in an inspirational line dance sort of way!! "It's like devotion in motion!", as one enthusiastic woman responded!

Sue travels extensively sharing her faith, music, and comic relief. A frequent guest of Sandy Cove Ministries in North East, MD as well as America's Keswick in Whiting, NJ, Sue also worked at WNRK Oldies Radio, Newark, DE as the morning DJ and continues to guest host for CTVN, Pittsburgh. She is also worship leader for Prison Fellowship Ministry Briefings, Raymond James National Prayer Breakfasts, and Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF). She has also led worship along side of Kay Arthur, Sheri Rose Shepherd, Donna Partow and Lisa Harper. Sue has been married to Jeff Duffield, keyboardist and arranger, for 35 years. They recently moved to Nashville, TN, and still travel in and out of the country doing retreats, conferences and special events.

Currently Sue is excited about her "LOL - Live Out Loud!" Tour for 2010. A blend of comedy, music and biblical perspective of living our lives LARGE for the Kingdom, including a theme song, as well as a one to four session topic with interactive drama and teaching. Obviously with all the Twitter, texts, Facebook and social media, it's a fun and relevant message, for all women! The "LOL" Tour with Sue Duffield!"
